EASTERN FIGHT MEN DO NOT EXPECT BATTLE

New York, Oct. 6-Eastern sporting men are not at all certain that there will ever be a fight for the heavyweight championship between James J. Jeffries and Jack Johnson. Recent cablegrams from Paris that Jeffries expected a purse of $150,000 to be offered, together with Johnson's repeated assertions that he would claim a lion's share of any purse would claim a lion's share of any purse offered, have partially confirmed the belief of fear that the two big men will not agree on terms, A purse of $150,000 is considered out of the question. Jeffries styles himself as "undefeated champion of the world," and his friends declare that this is sufficient indication that he will insist on dictating the terms, and will demand the champion's portion of any demand the champion's portion of any

Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promo-ter, left London last night for Paris to see Jeffries and further increase his bid of ready to sign final articles with Johnson and consider proposals from promoters.

EVEN MONEY BETTING IS THE RULE AT DETROIT

Detroit, Oct. 6.-Unless a rush of Pittsburg coin comes in today or tomorrow it is possible that the Detroit Tigers will enter their third series for the world's championship on an almost even basis in the odds with the Pirates. There was a little 2 to 1 money available here a week ago, but today 7 to 5 is the best oblock to win from Miss Mary Adams, Boston, eastern champion, after an amusing round in which both took practically three putts at every hole. Philadelphia, Oct. 6.—Abe Attell easily outpointed Buck (Twin) Miller of this city last night. Attell had the better of every round. Toward the end of the third round Attell staggered Miller with a succession of swings to the head and at the finish had the local boy in bad shape. Early in the last round Miller did his best work. He succeeded in landing several jabs on the champion's chin. Apart from this flash, Miller was at the mercy of Attell.

BRITISH WOMEN

National American Title Day Shows the Visitors in the Lead.

Philadelphia, Oct. 6 .- Developments to-Philadelphia, Oct. 6.—Developments to-day in the women's annual national golf championship had a distinctly British cast and many observers are beginning to think that the title will be carried abroad.

Two of the four British women who qualified for the title were put out today in the second round of match play, but the most skillful and prominent of the visiting delegations—Miss Dorothy Campbell and Miss Frances Teacher—remain. As both are in the top half of the draw, should both win tomorrow they must meet in the semi-finals.

The officers to ride are Captain Rowell, Lieutenant Elliot, Lieutenant Ellis, Lieutenant Lee. The mounts will be Phalanx, Lady Powell, Gov. Orman, Arthur Hyman and Byron.

RILEY'S SLAYERS STILL AT LARGE

Their apparel resembled that of the men who held up Frank Nebeker Tuesday night and later tilled Officer Riley after he had placed hem under arrest.

Two other suspects were arrested as they stepped from a freight train in Bingham canyon early yesterday morning. They partially answered the description, but furnished alibis which, if true, will

BELMONT RESULTS.

Belmont Park, Oct. 6.—Fauntleroy, second choice at 5 to 1, easily won the $1,500 Nursery handicap today, beating a high-class field of youngsters. Grasmere, the 4 to 5 favorite, made the pace to the last sixteenth, when Fauntleroy came strong,

Eye-witnesses disagree as to how Riley was shot. Some say that he had ar-rested both highwaymen and was walk-ing up State street and had turned out ing up State street and had turned out just opposite the Orpheum theatre to allow Mrs. West, of the Luxor hotel, to pass. In doing so he shoved one of his prisoners into the gutter and stepped ahead of him. The next instant the man had broken away from Riley's grasp and, drawing his gun, shot Riley in the left side. Then, walking around his prostrate victim, he took deliberate aim and fired again. He then vaulted the bars at the entrance of the alley and ran east on the north side of the Studebaker building and disappeared. His hat, a black derby, was found yesterday morning in derby, was found yesterday morning in the rear of the Wagner brewing office, lying near a 14-foot wire fence, in which the murderer had bent the wires.

Both Mrs. West and Henry Lewis declare that Riley had but one man.

Numerous other witnesses, including Mr. Hardman, driver of a street flusher, maintain that he had two, and that after the sheeting the other man rushed west. the shooting the other man rushed west across the street and disappeared in the Orpheum alley.

The latest version of the affair was told by a man giving the name of Mar-tin to Chief Sheets last night. Martin says he saw Riley taking one man along the other side of the street, when another fellow darted around the corner of Second South and State, started diagon-ally north across State and, seeing Riley and his prisoner, ran up behind the of-ficer and fired when within ten feet. Chief Sheets puts little credence in this

Scores of persons saw the murderer, but the police say none have given a good description of him. The police are counting most upon Mrs. West to identify the murderer in case he is arrested. A subscription has been started for Mrs. Riley. PARIS RACES.
